CORNER

I am not ready for summer to end since that's my favorite season of the year. Anyway, I have to admit that the trees are turning some beautiful colors - what great photo opportunities!

Our 43rd annual Senior Craft Fair was attended by many and they enjoyed the variety of vendors and, of course, our very own Sweet Shoppe. A big thanks to all who baked those yummy treats, bagged, tagged and got them ready for the fair. Also, the baskets were lovely and a big hit. Thanks to Gail Dupee for chairing the basket sale another year. Also, a big thank you to all who helped with hauling goods from the Senior Center, helped with the set up, tear down and many other tasks too numerous to mention. Without all the help from so many volunteers, our Senior Fair wouldn't happen.

As usual, our Boo Party was a huge success. Many talented carvers attended the luncheon and showed off their talents, as well as, costumes.

The Holiday Luncheon will be on December 8th, and if you haven't already bought your tickets, you may want to check with the office as only so many will be sold. I know I don't want to miss this yummy luncheon and fun gift game. In conjunction with the luncheon will be our Holiday Bake Sale on Dec. 7th, 8th & 9th. Bring your wallet and purchase all the yummy goodies which will be baked and donated by all our wonderful bakers so that you will have them on hand for your holiday company.

Election of Officers was held at the last SUMS meeting. Paul Vlastelica will be the incoming President replacing Pat Ward. Thanks for all your hard work Pat and welcome to SUMS Paul. George Cho is our new VP replacing Marlys Price whose term is up December 31st. Welcome to SUMS George. Al Butler and Audrey O'Leary will remain Treasurer and Secretary respectively.

Hope you all have a Happy Thanksgiving, a Merry Christmas and a great New Year.

Happy Trails, Marlys Price , VP SUMS

Be kind to yourself during difficult times-because these too shall pass.
